On February 9, 2011, New York State Assemblymember Peter M. Rivera will receive the 2011 Edward R. Roybal Award for Outstanding Public Service. Assemblymember Peter Rivera's public service mirrors the life example of NALEO's founder Edward R. Roybal with several shared leadership examples as is illustrated in Assemblymember Rivera's work including advancing mental health programs, AIDS funding, improved services for the elderly and disenfranchised communities. His leadership is further demonstrated by his tireless efforts to establish programs and organizations that improve opportunities for a new generation of leaders, in the same spirit of service as the Honorable Edward R. Roybal.

The Edward R. Roybal Legacy Gala is so named for the many contributions the late Congressman made to the nation, to NALEO and to the NALEO Educational Fund, of which he is Founder and President Emeritus.

Congressman Roybal served on the Los Angeles City Council from 1949 to 1962, and in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1963 to 1992. In 1976, Congressman Roybal and several of his colleagues founded NALEO and the Congressional Hispanic Caucus. He served as NALEO's President until 1999, when he was named President Emeritus. Congressman Roybal's legacy lives on in the work of those bestowed with the prestigious Edward R. Roybal Award for Outstanding Public Service. Recent awardees of the Edward R. Roybal Award for Outstanding Public Service have included former U.S. Senator Mel Martinez (2010), Texas State Senator Leticia Van de Putte (2009), and New Mexico Governor Bill Richardson (2008).

Sponsorships begin at $2,500 and individual tickets are now available. Please visit www.naleo.org/RoybalLegacyGala for additional information or email Development@naleo.org.
