Safe Routes to School Policy Roundtable

Wednesday, October 12, 2011 | 4 - 7 PM

Health Services Complex - County of San Diego
3851 Rosecrans St. San Diego, CA 92110
San Diego Conference Room

Interested in learning about what school districts and cities throughout San Diego County are doing to promote and encourage walking and biking to school and other ways to improve opportunities for healthy and active students and families?

Come learn from peers such as policymakers, administrators, and school staff who are adopting and implementing policies in their communities. Further technical assistance may be available for those who attend this workshop.

We encourage elected officials to take advantage of this unique opportunity and join us at this free training.

Space is limited.
